

HSBC Global Liquidity Funds plc

Administration Guide

How do I open an account?

1. Read Key Investor Information Document for the share class(es) you want to invest in.

Please visit www.assetmanagement.hsbc.com/fundinfo?lang=en&country=gb

2. You will need the following documentation:

1. A completed Account Opening Form, a copy of which you can obtain from your local HSBC Liquidity Client Service team using the contact details overleaf.
2. A certified list of authorised signatories who are permitted to change the standing data contained in the Account Opening Form (e.g. your bank account details). Please note that changes to standing data will only be made upon receipt of an original, signed letter. A template letter is available upon request from your local HSBC Liquidity Client Service team.
3. A certified list of authorised signatories who are permitted to trade on the account; and
4. Any documentation required for anti-money laundering purposes.

How do I place a deal?

Automated options

The following options automate the trade flow between investors and Bank of New York Mellon, the Transfer Agent for the HSBC Global Liquidity Funds. Investors benefit from increased operational efficiencies, including improved timeliness of trade confirmations and statements, whilst removing the risk associated with manual processing.

SWIFT

We support SWIFT 15022 and 20022 formats including MT502 (order placement), MT509 (trade receipt), MT515 (trade confirmation), MT535 (account balance) and MT536 (account transactions).

Calastone

Calastone's order routing service is available to all investors. The service is unique in its approach. Calastone support all message types from the sender and translate to meet the receiver's own requirements and provide the same in reverse. This means the service can quickly and easily be adopted by both parties, reducing upfront and maintenance costs.

HSBC Liquidity Funds Portal

We offer an automated online trading and reporting facility via the HSBC Liquidity Funds Portal through HSBCNet.

We are happy to provide further information if the Liquidity Funds Portal is of interest, including the new user application form which you'll need to complete.

If you are an existing HSBCNet user, you'll need to complete the supplementary application form to obtain access to the HSBC Liquidity Funds Portal.

Please note that when placing trades via HSBCNet, the trading deadline is 15 minutes earlier than the deadline quoted in the guide, i.e.

- ◆ Sterling Liquidity Fund cut off via HSBCNet is 1.15pm Dublin time.
- ◆ US Dollar Liquidity Fund cut off via HSBCNet is 4.15pm New York time.

Portal

There are several external online portals potentially available to clients who wish to trade online. The requirements differ for each.

If you are interested in utilising one of the options above, please contact your local HSBC Liquidity Client Service team for further information.

How do I place a deal by fax?

1. If you want to place a deal by fax, you should complete a Subsequent Dealing Form, which can be obtained from your local HSBC Liquidity Client Service team, and fax it to HSBC Global Liquidity Funds plc, fax +353 1 829 0834. To confirm receipt of the fax please phone +353 1 642 8544. Faxes must be received by the Administrator before the relevant Dealing Deadline.
2. If you are an Asian-based shareholder and seek same day redemption payments from the HSBC US Dollar Liquidity Fund, you should complete a Subsequent Dealing Form, which can be obtained from your local HSBC Liquidity Client Service team, and fax it to HSBC Global Liquidity Funds plc, fax +353 1 829 0834. To confirm receipt of the fax please phone the Singapore Administrator on +65 6372 6905. Faxes must be received by the Singapore Administrator before the relevant Singapore Interim Dealing Deadline.

How do I place a deal by phone?

1. If you want to place a deal by telephone, you should call the HSBC dealing team, +353 1 642 8544 before the relevant Dealing Deadline.
2. If you are an Asian-based shareholder and seek same day redemption payments from the HSBC US Dollar Liquidity Fund, and you want to place a deal by telephone, you should call the HSBC dealing team based in Singapore on +65 6372 6905 before the relevant Singapore Interim Dealing Deadline.
3. You should be prepared to provide the following information:
 1. Your shareholder account number.
 2. Your name, as it appears on the shareholder register; and
 3. The name and share class of the fund that you wish to deal in, and the amount that you wish to deal.
 4. You may also be asked certain security questions, to confirm your identity.
4. Please note that your dealing instructions will be read-back (so that you can confirm they are accurate), and that all telephone deals are recorded.

How do I settle deals?

1. Redemption proceeds will be electronically transferred to the bank account given in your Account Opening Form on the Settlement Date.
2. Subscription payments must be made by the Cash Deadline on the Settlement Date by electronic transfer. If you do not settle a subscription by the Cash Deadline on the Settlement Date, then you may be liable for any loss incurred by the HSBC Global Liquidity Funds plc as described in the Prospectus.

Is there anything else that I need to know?

1. Confirmation of the deal and settlement will be provided after the dealing deadline in the same format that you instructed the trade with the exception of telephone trades; these are only confirmed in writing.
2. Your initial investment and subsequent deals should be for the minimum amounts shown below and in the Prospectus. After making an initial investment, your balance may fall below this minimum amount and to zero.

Share class	Minimum initial subscription in relevant currency	Minimum subsequent subscription in relevant currency
A and C share class	1m	100,000
B and D share class	10,000	10,000
E and I share class	50m	2m
F and J share class	250m	5m
G and K share class	750m	10m

3. You can obtain information on the daily yield and net asset value of the HSBC Global Liquidity Funds plc from the HSBC Global Asset Management website, www.assetmanagement.hsbc.com, Reuters or Bloomberg, the codes for which can be found on the fund factsheet. Alternatively, you may request that your local HSBC Liquidity Client Service team arrange for this information to be emailed to you on a daily basis.
4. If you have invested in a distributing share class, your dividend income will be declared daily and paid monthly. Dividend income can be paid at any time during the month if you request a full account redemption.
5. A record of your account and all transactions are kept by the Administrator. Statements confirming deals, dividends and month end balances will be sent to you on a monthly basis.
6. Please note that stock certificates are not issued for your holding. The issue and transfer of shares is by book entry.

Important Information

For Professional Clients and intermediaries within countries and territories set out below; and for Institutional Investors and Financial Advisors in Canada and the US. This document should not be distributed to or relied upon by Retail clients/investors.

The value of investments and the income from them can go down as well as up and investors may not get back the amount originally invested. The capital invested in the fund can increase or decrease and is not guaranteed. The performance figures contained in this document relate to past performance, which should not be seen as an indication of future returns. Future returns will depend, inter alia, on market conditions, fund manager's skill, fund risk level and fees. Where overseas investments are held the rate of currency exchange may cause the value of such investments to go down as well as up. Investments in emerging markets are by their nature higher risk and potentially more volatile than those inherent in some established markets. Economies in Emerging Markets generally are heavily dependent upon international trade and, accordingly, have been and may continue to be affected adversely by trade barriers, exchange controls, managed adjustments in relative currency values and other protectionist measures imposed or negotiated by the countries and territories with which they trade. These economies also have been and may continue to be affected adversely by economic conditions in the countries and territories in which they trade. Mutual fund investments are subject to market risks, read all scheme related documents carefully.

Such forward looking statements are not guarantees of future performance or events and involve risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ materially from those described in such forward-looking statements as a result of various factors. We do not undertake any obligation to update the forward-looking statements contained herein, or to update the reasons why actual results could differ from those projected in the forward-looking statements. This document has no contractual value and is not by any means intended as a solicitation, nor a recommendation for the purchase or sale of any financial instrument in any jurisdiction in which such an offer is not lawful. The views and opinions expressed herein are those of HSBC Asset Management at the time of preparation, and are subject to change at any time. These views may not necessarily indicate current portfolios' composition. Individual portfolios managed by HSBC Asset Management primarily reflect individual clients' objectives, risk preferences, time horizon, and market liquidity. Foreign and emerging markets. Investments in foreign markets involve risks such as currency rate fluctuations, potential differences in accounting and taxation policies, as well as possible political, economic, and market risks. These risks are heightened for investments in emerging markets which are also subject to greater illiquidity and volatility than developed foreign markets.
